

Led by Waltier Blocker and made up of 60 voices, the Gospel choir from the African Episcopal Church of St. Thomas is called the “hardest working choir on this side of heaven.” And, for good reason. Together they have traveled across the United States and around the globe from The Vatican to Costa Rica to Ireland next summer to celebrate 30 years together.

BEYOND SUNDAY

