MASTER OF SCIENCE IN CHURCH MANAGEMENT

VILLANOVA
BUSINESS

Transform the way you lead and serve the church in an increasingly complex world. The Master of Science in Church Management (MSCM) is an innovative, two-year online graduate business program that provides a high-level skill set in church management. Built upon two foundational elements – a solid business curriculum and a faith-based approach to church management – each course is meticulously designed for current and future Christian church leaders.

Whether you are a church leader looking for increased management expertise or a volunteer looking to apply your skills in the church, a Master of Science in Church Management from Villanova University helps you bridge mission and management. If you are interested in strengthening your ability to contribute to the church's mission, the MSCM is the degree for you.

“The MSCM is a one-of-a-kind degree. I am so proud of the difference our graduates make in their faith communities.”

JOYCE E. A. RUSSELL, PHD

The Helen and William O'Toole Dean of the Villanova School of Business

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHO SHOULD APPLY TO THE MSCM PROGRAM?

The MSCM is designed to meet the needs of an international student body of church leaders and managers of all Christian faiths— including pastors and pastoral associates, parish business managers, directors of diocesan departments, leaders of religious order and those engaged in managing social service ministries. It is ideal for professionals who work full-time and cannot leave their ministry to come to a campus and pursue full-time study.

WHEN DO CLASSES MEET?

The program begins with online classes in mid-May, followed by a one-week residency on the Villanova University campus during early June. After the one-week residency, the remaining MSCM courses are provided online, enabling you to attend all classes without leaving your home or office.

WHAT IS REQUIRED TO APPLY

Admission is based on experience, letters of recommendation and a personal essay. Standardized tests such as the GRE and GMAT are not required. TOEFL may be required for some students. All students need a 3.0 GPA in MSCM courses in order to graduate.
