After Jesus' resurrection from the dead, Luke says he appeared to his disciples and said, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things." (Luke 24: 46-48)

Christians around the world have borne witness to "those things" ever since, and yet, as Jesus says, the movement begins in Jerusalem. The movement we inherit in Pennsylvania has its roots in the land Christ called home, both rugged and beautiful, and our sisters and brothers in the movement continue to bear witness through hospitals and schools that serve the most marginalized in the name of Jesus.

WITNESS

Led by the Rt. Rev. Daniel Gutiérrez, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania, this pilgrimage will encounter the Gospel in stone and flesh, visiting the sights that mark the story of our faith and the people who keep that faith alive in the Holy Land today, with special emphasis on the people and institutions of the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem. We'll come home changed, restored, and renewed.

"We moved from bustling, populated areas full of life, to river valleys with rich, fertile soil, and then to the desert," Gutiérrez said of the 2019 pilgrimage. "Whether it was the twisted branches and trunks of olive trees in the Garden of Gethsemane, the poppies that lined the path of the Via Maris, the sweeping vistas from the Mount of Transfiguration, or the isolation of the barren landscape in the Judean Desert, all in our group were touched. Prayers lifted us to a level of unexpected tranquility."

TRANQUILITY

You are invited to consider whether God is calling you on this journey.

The pilgrimage is $3,800 plus airfare, insurance, and incidentals. Registration is now open, and our 35 slots are filling up.

A PURPOSEFUL PILGRIMAGE

FIVE COMMITMENTS WE MAKE

- 1 Each day will include prayer, either the Daily Office or the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist with local congregations or in holy sites like the Judean Desert, the Mount of Beatitudes, and the ruins of Emmaus.
- 2 We will pray for one another in assigned prayer partnerships, and through our shared meals, we will create lasting relationships with our fellow pilgrims.
- 3 We commit to deepening our relationship to the Episcopal Diocese of Jerusalem by praying with our siblings and celebrating their ministries, such as at the Princess Basma Center, a safe, healing place for children with disabilities.
- 4 While this pilgrimage is not a political tour, we commit to bearing witness to the experience of Christians, Muslims, and Jews through our travels and in several evening presentations.
- 5 While the itinerary is always tentative, given political and pandemic uncertainties in the region, we commit to providing an equally appealing alternative if our plans should change.

IN JERUSALEM ST. GEORGE'S GUESTHOUSE

Accommodations are well regarded here at the guesthouse adjacent to St. George's Cathedral, and the gardens are sublime.

Accommodations are a bit monastic here but the rooms are very well kept, and the central location and breathtaking rooftop views don't disappoint.

WHERE WE STAY

IN NAZARETH SISTERS OF NAZARETH CONVENT

WHO ARE OUR LEADERS?

The Rt. Rev. Daniel Gutiérrez is the pilgrimage's spiritual leader. The Rev. Canon Shawn Wamsley coordinates logistics before and during the trip, and Canon Iyad Qumri, a Palestinian Episcopalian with decades of experience making pilgrimages meaningful, is our local guide.

HOW ARE WE GETTING THERE?

Pilgrims will have the opportunity to book their own flight to Tel Aviv from the airport of their choice, maximizing travel flexibility. Airport arrival information and tips on traveling from the airport to Jerusalem will be provided. Occasionally ground travel can be arranged if several flight times align.

WHAT WILL I NEED TO TRAVEL?

A passport not to expire before October 1st, 2024. Visas are not required for U.S. citizens. Pilgrims must be vaccinated against COVID-19 and provide documentation.

AM I HEALTHY ENOUGH?

There is a large amount of walking on this pilgrimage, much of it uphill or on uneven terrain, and many sites require the use of stairs. On-site lectures often require standing, and much of the day is spent outside. Some churches use ample incense which may upset some allergies. The pilgrimage leaders will make every effort to accommodate your physical needs but may ask that you sit a particular activity out or help you craft an alternative personal day if you are unable to keep up with the group. It is not uncommon to walk 5 - 10 miles per day.

MAY I INVITE A FRIEND?

Of course! While the pilgrimage is rooted in Anglican spirituality, it is open to all people.

WHAT ELSE MAY I EXPECT?

Canon Wamsley is available to answer any questions you might have. Expect a reading list, and tips on packing and pandemic travel. You will have an opportunity to meet your fellow pilgrims at an orientation prior to the trip.
